

THE SYLVAN & OCEANIC DELIGHTS OF POSILIPO

DELIZIE DI POSILIPO BOSCARRECCE, E MARITIME, NAPOLI 1620

In celebration of its 20th Season, MusicSources recreates this lavish court entertainment from 1620. First performed in Naples for King Philip III of Spain, it features Knights, Cavaliers, Sea Deities and Sirens that rise up from the ocean waves, as well as Sylvan creatures and Gods of the forest. A troupe of singers, dancers and a grand Renaissance band will be joined by the largest continuo ensemble ever assembled in the Bay Area!

May 4, 2007, 7:30 pm
Northbrae Community Church (Haver Hall)
A benefit for MusicSources

Contact MusicSources for more details and to receive an invitation.

MUSICSOURCES, 1000 The Alameda, Berkeley, California 94707
(510) 528-1685 • email: msources@lmi.net • www.musicsources.org

MARK FRANKO
choreographer

GILBERT MARTINEZ
music director

NINA TREADWELL
asst. music director

DWIGHT BEEN set designer

A co-production of MusicSources
UC Santa Cruz Theater Arts Dept.
and Galileo Project